Join #1 New York Times bestselling humorist and original Sweet Potato Queen for a hilarious presentation of her new life maintenance program designed to help women navigate society's obsession with nips, tucks, carbs, and clothes.

"If I can save one woman from these thighs, I will not have lived in vain," Jill Conner Browne writes in American Thighs, her handbook and memoir for the Hot and Flashy. Whether young enough to look "hot" or of the age to only feel that way (in flashes with buckets of sweat), every woman has given, or will give, ample thought to preserving her best "assets" (thighs included), so that the dread transition from "cute girl" to "ma'am" won't be quite so unsettling.

Jill Conner Browne, bestselling author and Boss Queen, tours and speaks full-time about all things Queenly. She is the author of The Sweet Potato Queens' Wedding Planner/Divorce Guide; The Sweet Potato Queens' Field Guide to Men: Every Man I Love Is Either Married, Gay, or Dead; The Sweet Potato Queens' Big-Ass Cookbook (and Financial Planner); God Save the Sweet Potato Queens; and The Sweet Potato Queens' Book of Love. She lives in Jackson, Mississippi.

"Equal parts Erin Brockovich, Erma Bombeck, and Dr. Ruth, her books make readers laugh." —Newsweek

"You don't have to be from the South...you just have to like laughing out loud, a lot." —Chicago Tribune

"Against every sort of obstacle, she has managed to write, provoke and inspire millions of women into a therapeutic southern-fried sisterhood of laughter." —The Washington Post
